Alza Velescule

Personal Details

NAME	Alza Velescule
RANK	Jedi Master
TITLE	Battlemaster
BORN	960 RSY
STATUS	Deceased
AFFILIATION	The Jedi Order

Basic Information

SPECIES	Togorian
GENDER	Female
AGE	115
HOMEWORLD	Maldo Kreis

Overview

Alza Velescule was born on the frigid Outer Rim world of Maldo Kreis, where survival demanded resilience and ingenuity. Raised in a small family dwelling built into the mouth of a cave, Alza and their family lived a harsh hunter's life in the frozen canyons of the planet. The unforgiving environment shaped Alza from a young age, teaching them patience, caution, and the importance of careful observation. During childhood, Alza often ventured into the icy cave systems alongside their older brother, learning the skills necessary to survive in the hostile wilderness. Tragedy struck early in their life when their brother was lost during one such hunt, an event that left Alza with a lingering sense of responsibility and a deep fear of weakness. Not long after, a wandering Jedi crash-landed on Maldo Kreis and took shelter with Alza's family while repairing his ship. During his stay, the Jedi sensed the Force strongly within the young child. Recognizing their potential, he eventually departed the planet with Alza, bringing them to begin training within the Jedi Order.

Story

Upon entering the Temple and beginning their journey as a young initiate, Alza quickly demonstrated a relentless curiosity about both the Force and the nature of combat. Rather than focusing solely on doctrine, they constantly questioned how the Force could be applied to real-world problems and battlefield situations. This mindset brought them under the tutelage of Master Ravyn Voss, whose practical combat experience heavily influenced.

Alza's early development. Under Voss's guidance, Alza trained extensively in lightsaber combat and learned to view martial discipline as a means of protecting others rather than seeking personal glory. Over time, Alza also received guidance from Master Mace Windu, whose teachings challenged them to confront the deeper emotional and philosophical responsibilities that come with wielding power. The combined influence of these mentors helped shape Alza into a Jedi who valued balance between knowledge and action, strength and restraint, and the ideals of the Order and the realities of a galaxy increasingly consumed by war.

Alza went on to become a Peacekeeper as a Jedi Intern with master Voss. Eventually becoming a knight with Obi-wan's approval. After, Alza joined the watchmen shaping their viewpoint of the world along with skillset.

Jedi Master Alza Velescule now serves as the Battle master of the Jedi Order, a position earned through extensive combat training, battlefield experience, and dedication to strengthening the martial discipline of the Jedi. Originally rising through the ranks as a determined and inquisitive

Jedi, Alza quickly developed a reputation for combining traditional Jedi teachings with a pragmatic understanding of the realities of war. Their philosophy emphasizes balance between offense and defense, strength and restraint, and knowledge and discipline.

Throughout the Wars, Alza has faced numerous challenges that shaped their outlook on the Force and their role within the Order. The loss of mentors and allies during the war, including the deaths of respected Jedi such as Master Zey and other comrades, deeply influenced their determination to grow stronger and better prepare the Order for the threats it faces. Despite these hardships, Alza remains committed to guiding younger Jedi and expanding the Order's combat knowledge. As Battle master, they actively train Padawans and Knights, studying multiple lightsaber forms and exploring new combat philosophies in order to ensure that the Jedi remain adaptable against enemies such as the Sith.

Service Record

- Battle against the Sith Vynn on Coruscant – Participated in a large Jedi engagement against the Sith adversary Vynn, landing a successful strike during the battle and witnessing the destructive power of the dark side firsthand.
- Zey's Funeral – Attended the funeral of Master Zey, where the emotional toll of the war was further felt when a Jedi named Marshal took his own life in grief.
- Peacekeeping Missions – Helped mediate disputes and assist civilians during operations such as the Dantooine peacekeeping mission.
- White Crystal Meditation Event – Participated in a meditation near the mysterious white crystal beneath the temple, experiencing visions of ancient Jedi and Sith conflicts tied to Corellian history.
- Training the youth – Hosted many events for younglings bringing them up in the future
- Ryloth Diplomatic Mission – Joined Republic Intelligence and Jedi leadership in efforts to contact Twi'lek tribes and build alliances in the Outer Rim.
- Tatooine Watchmen Reconnaissance Mission – Conducted a covert investigation on Tatooine with fellow Watchman Horus while searching for a suspected spice warehouse near Mos Eisley. During the mission, Alza infiltrated local criminal circles, gathered intelligence from contacts in a cantina, and observed smugglers meeting with a mysterious holographic figure known as "the Boss." The operation was complicated by a sandstorm and a rampaging rancor, but Alza maintained cover when confronted by armed smugglers, preserving the opportunity for future intelligence gathering.

Contributions

Alza has had many contributions towards the Jedi Order. After all of her hard work and dedication, Alza was granted the rank of Jedi Master and Battlemaster of the Jedi Order. She was responsible for overseeing lightsaber trainings and the combat doctrine. Alza has trained many Younglings personally to assist their growth within the ways of the Jedi Order. Alza has participated in diplomatic and intelligence efforts across the Outer Rim to strengthen alliances with local leaders. Now, Alza continues to study deeper into the nature of the Force through meditation, Kyber communion, and historical research.

Relationships

- Master Mace Windu – Mentor figure who has tested and guided Alza’s understanding of advanced combat philosophies, taking over as Master when Master Voss disappeared
- Master Ravyn Voss - Initial mentor before Mace Windu. Taught Alza all the basics to being a Jedi and combat. His methods were harsh.
- Jaro Tapal - Friend and comrade
- Baal Baal – Instructor assisting Alza in training with the Niman form and dual-saber combat techniques.
- Arligan Zey - Friend and mentor, his passing drove Alza’s passion
- Renn Va’al - Friend who Alza grew up in the order with. Zey’s Padawan.
- Sylen Vilas - Mentor, taught Alza in their early stages of combat.
- Horus Rah – Jar’Kai practitioner assisting with dual-blade combat training.
- Padawan Typha – Alza’s student, whom they train and guide through practical experience.
- Malric Izer - Good Friend
- Snow Sol - 3rd Padawan
- Orion Velescule - 2nd Padawan - Died to self-inflicted wounds.
  Death

Death

Battlemaster Velescule died an underwhelming death after choking on a Galactic Burger. How such a fate could fall upon such a renowned Jedi is yet to be discovered.

Revision #4
Created 2026-05-04 05:21:52 UTC by Obsidian
Updated 2026-06-25 06:35:37 UTC by Drama