Overview

Former Special Operations Brigade Rear Admiral Arvol Caesar values loyalty above all else. Arvol Caesar was born into a poor republic family. His father, Elias Caesar, became Vice Grand Admiral when Arvol first enlisted as a Commander under SOB Fleet Admiral Hans Konig.

Early Life

Arvol tried to help others where he could, even if it got him in trouble. Arvol started off his Republic service with a bang, getting arrested for stealing and flying a Senator's speeder into the Pink Lady in a drunken state.

Unfortunately for Arvol, the Pink Lady became the stage for the worst days of his life. Republic Intelligence keeps much of his story under wraps. He currently holds a place on the Republic's Most Wanted List for multiple crimes, including espionage and mass murder.

Abilities

Arvol Caesar is described as an individual with a strategic mindset capable of turning the tides of a losing battle. Along with his strategic mindset is his robotic limbs which make kicks and punches much more durable.

Story

Attack on Republic Justice

Vice Grand Admiral Elias Caesar was found guilty on all charges and sentenced to execution. The judges who sentenced him had a personal history with Arvol's father. After a tearful goodbye, Vice Grand Admiral Elias Caesar was dead.

High Justice Shea Beast and Justice Au Andromeda were placed in Republic Custody under numerous charges, alongside one Marshal Commander Wolffe. Arvol Caesar would storm the Republic Military base with a platoon of Republic Intelligence. Arvol then broke the Marshal out of jail. Arvol proceeded to murder the justices after a lengthy argument.

As of now, his fate is unknown.
