

CC-8715 "Samson"

Overview

CC-8715 "Samson" was born on the planet Kamino, along with his fellow Phase 1 cadets. He is personally the commander of 87th Sentinel Corps. Though his battalion is younger compared to other battalions, they are no less effective. Commanding in a range of offensives and defenses in the republic, Samson leads with strict authority, and with deadly efficiency. Along with Jedi General Lyria and her Jedi Crusaders, Samson leads from the front with his troops in the 87th

Currently, CC-8715 "Samson" leads his men on the streets and space of Christophsis.

Military Career

Born on the oceans of Kamino like all of his brothers, Samson's ability to lead quickly set him apart from his other squad mates. During his first trainings at the Republic Clone Academy, he set himself apart from his squad and was personally selected by the Kaminoan scientists to undergo specific training to lead a battalion.

After his extended training and the wars beginning, CC-8715 was assigned to aid in the creation of the 87th along with his former cadet squad mate, ARC-9796 "Serce" in 981 RSY. Upon their completion, they landed on the streets of Christophsis for their first deployment.

Notable Engagements

As one of the main battalions assigned with the takeover of Christophsis, they were the dedicated defense force of the major forward operation bases. During a multitude of these engagements, Samson and his battalion served on the frontlines as a bastion of defense.

QUOTE

"We have many battles ahead of us, destroy the enemy, maximum lethality"

Leadership

IN OFFICE

SUCCESSOR

982 RSY - Present

Though they currently have only served on Christophsis, Samson and his men have already proven themselves as an unwavering spirit in the depths of combat.

"We control the city, We control the fight!"

Revision #2

Created 2026-04-14 07:06:12 UTC by LoafRolace

Updated 2026-05-06 17:30:16 UTC by LoafRolace