Commander Karnus Ra

Overview

General Karnus Ra, also known as "The Cyclops," serving the Separatist Alliance. He is considered a re tactician across the Outer Rim... but regarded as a b worse politician amongst his peers.

Karnus is most known to utilize organic soldiers, volunteers, and partisans in the battlefield- preferring to utilize them as lieutenants or irregulars over droids consistently. Karnus specializes in insurgent warfare, and he currently serves as a General under High Admiral Pax and his Reaper's Fleet. Karnus commands a small task force of Munificent-class Frigates within the fleet.

Early Life

Karnus Ra was born on a forgotten, uncharted world deep within Wild Space- far beyond the reach of the Galactic Republic’s established hyperspace routes and governance. The planet itself, unnamed in most navigational records, was known as Lysatra. Lysatra's surface was dominated by dense, untamed jungle ecosystems and scarce resources.

Karnus was raised among a small, community of drifters, settlers, and nomads, all individuals who had either fled the Republic’s authority or been left behind by it entirely. His early adult years is where he would be exposure to all types of off-world influences. Smugglers, mercenaries, and traders would occasionally pass through the system, bringing with them information of the wider galaxy.
