

Plo-Koon

Overview

Master Plo-Koon, revered Master in the Jedi order, other Jedi in the Order. Master Plo, Unfortunately to the hands of count dooku.

Early Life

Plo Koon was born on the planet Dorin. At some point, Koon was discovered by the Jedi Order and was selected to be the Padawan of Jedi Master Tyvokka. After Warlord Guattako kidnapped several children to make them part of his on the planet Salon, Jedi Master Mace Windu was sent in 34 BY to find and rescue them. Eventually, Wind was able to defeat all of Guattako's army. Guttako was shot by one of the children. Shortly after Guattako was murdered, Plo Koon, along with Dept Bilabial, and Qui-Gon Jinn arrived on the planet to help.

In 33 BY, Plo Koon was on a mission to the planet Chili, the home world of the Tortuga. While there, he discovered a young force-sensitive Tortuga child named Asoka Tano. Plo Koon brought Asoka Tano back to the Jedi Order to ensure she could be trained as a Jedi, and ever since they have remained in touch, maintaining a close bond and friendship. By the year 33 BY, Plo Koon had achieved the rank of Jedi Master and was elevated to the position of a permanent seat on the Jedi High Council with the recommendation coming from his late Jedi Master.

Story

Plo's recent history is very depressing but also rich in legendary moments. As he became a Higher and Higher rank within the Jedi order, his council would make several attempts to route him out of the Order as a whole, Likely upset at his ability to reach the rank he did. This however, did not stop him.

He would go on to fight on Carida both against the IRC Terrorists, and the CiS alongside the Wolfpack. He also fought in several campaigns on Christophsis, where he witnessed a great deal of good men perish to the hands of the Count of Serrano. On multiple occasions, Plo would end up dueling the count, Once resulting in his capture. He was able to escape capture after careful planning with other Jedi in regards to escaping. Luckily being able to run into his rescue team on the way out, allowing them to have reinforced numbers for their Exfil.

Afterwards, he was immediately redeployed to Christophsis where he fought valiantly and freed two cities, before being deployed to take prime. Which was done successfully. It was at this moment, the forces of fate came together to tie up master Plo's story, As he was sent back to christophsis where he would ultimately die fighting for what he believed in.

Abilities

Compassionate and Humanizing Leader: Plo Koon stood out for his care of clone troopers, often prioritizing their lives, which earned him immense loyalty, particularly from Clone Commander Wolffe.

Serene and Level-Headed: He maintained an "unflappable calm" in high-pressure situations, rarely panicked, and provided calm analysis in the Jedi Council.

Wise and Unconventional: Regarded as a wise mentor, he was open to unconventional solutions, showing flexibility in his approach to justice and warfare.

Extremely Loyal and Protective: He was deeply committed to his friends and troops, although he always prioritized his duty and rarely let emotions cloud his judgment.

Quietly Confident: Unlike more boisterous Jedi, Plo was known for his quiet charisma and steady presence.

Downfall

Master Plo was deployed to the grounds of Christophsis with the mission of defending it against the ruthless droid army. He fought valiantly alongside his men. Slaying hundreds of droids in the process alongside master Yoda. He and Yoda would then however stumble into the HQ of Count Dooku, under the presumption that it was a supply depot. They then engaged in fierce combat with the count, until Master Yoda ran in fear in the middle of battle, leaving the Outgunned Plo Koon to be all alone, giving every ounce of power he has just to ensure a small chance of survival.

Ultimately, it didn't matter, as in his final moments, he was struck down by the count, all alone, betrayed and hated by the council he worked among for all of his life. He lived a lonely life unsure if anyone was truly there for him. His death, however, was not in vein. He died having unknowingly saved the lives of two of his Men.
