Fourth Mizukage - Asda Yuki - DEAD

Personal Details

NAME	Asda Yuki
BORN	1 V.E
AGE	17
KILLS	100-150
STATUS	Alive
VILLAGE	Kirigakure
QUOTE	"If I don't do it, then who will."

Leadership

MENTEE	Rui Hyuga
PREDECESSOR	Orb Hozuki

Early life

Birth and Background: ## Asda was born in 4 BVE during the tumultuous Mist and Stone war. He is a descendant of the esteemed Yuki lineage, though much about his ancestry remains unknown. Hailing from Kirigakure, his life took a pivotal turn with the death of Zeno Hozuki, which profoundly affected his future.

Life in the Hidden Leaf Village: Asda grew up as a shinobi of the Hidden Leaf Village, though he often felt a lingering sense of unease about his true origins. Despite his uncertainties, he quickly distinguished himself in combat, showing remarkable talent even without guidance from a specialized trainer.

Training and Abilities: In the absence of formal training in his clan's techniques, Asda honed his skills by learning from the chaotic and often brutal shinobi world around him. He became increasingly aware of the name "Blare," frequently mentioned in comparisons, yet he struggled to grasp its significance.

Rise to Prominence: At just 13 years old, Asda adopted the Black Ice Style, a formidable combat technique. He dominated the Chunin Exams and gained a fearsome reputation on the battlefield, displaying his prowess through a violent approach. His strength and skill caught the attention of Rui Hyuga, the reigning Tyrant, earning Asda respect among his peers and mentors alike.

Acknowledgment

Rui Hyuga’s Influence: Earning the interest of Rui Hyuga marked a turning point in Asda’s life. Before their meeting, Asda had no mentor or guidance, relying solely on his instincts. Rui’s presence introduced him to new tools and knowledge, profoundly shaping his development.

Growth and Maturation: Under Rui’s mentorship, Asda experienced significant growth in strength, performance, and maturity. He advanced rapidly, reaching the peak of his abilities. However, after a year of training, Asda found himself stagnating, unable to progress further despite Rui’s continued support.

The Proposition: Acknowledging Asda’s plateau, Rui proposed the Land of Tea Expedition as a new opportunity for growth. This adventure promised to challenge Asda and potentially unlock new avenues for his development.

The Land of Tea Expedition

Preparation for the Expedition: After reaching his peak in the Mainland, Asda was deemed ready to join one of the last groups dispatched to the Land of Tea. This expedition would prove to be life-changing for him.

Arrival in Yanken: Upon arriving in the city of Yanken, Asda immersed himself in the local customs of Avalon and uncovered some of the land's secrets. However, the residents were on edge, troubled by ominous events that had recently unfolded.

Training Under Jin Ryoba: To prepare for the challenges ahead, Jin Ryoba was appointed to oversee the growth of all participants. During months of intensive training, Asda experienced remarkable growth, leading his group to achieve top rankings in combative performance among the Mainland teams.

Confronting New Realities: As Asda trained, he became acutely aware of the significant power gap between him and the Avalonians. He witnessed levels of chakra that he had never imagined possible. This realization struck him hard during his first mission, where he could do nothing but watch in horror as his comrades were slaughtered by a mysterious beast.

A Humbling Experience: In a single, devastating moment, Asda found his access to chakra completely severed. The expedition to the Capital of Avalon quickly turned into a massacre. Stricken with gut-wrenching fear, Asda realized he could do nothing but flee from the strongest foe he had ever faced, desperate to survive. This experience profoundly humbled him, shaping his character and fueling his determination.

Aftermath and Goals: Despite the trauma, this journey ultimately propelled Asda to the rank of Jonin. The humbling experience instilled in him a deeper understanding of his limitations and led to two new goals that he diligently pursues each day.

Pursuit of Origin

Meeting Chaos Hoshigaki: During preparations for the Land of Tea expedition, Asda formed a close friendship with Chaos Hoshigaki, the son of Mist, the first Assistant of Kirigakure. This connection sparked a new understanding for Asda regarding his own origins.

Discovering His Heritage: For the first time, Asda began to grasp fragments of his past, igniting a desire to learn more about his lineage. Mist shared his dream of reuniting Kirigakure and restoring it to its former glory, an ambition that resonated deeply with Asda. He knew only of his two brothers, Y'mir and Raiden. They were all close and shared different ideals, and perspectives. None the less, they were without mistake, brothers.

A Shared Purpose: Inspired by Chaos’s vision, Asda found common ground with him. Intrigued by the possibility of uncovering his origins, Asda agreed to support Chaos in pursuing this dream. Together, they embarked on a journey that intertwined their goals and strengthened their bond.

The Revival

Initial Efforts: Chaos led a group known as the Bullies in an attempt to engage with the inhabitants of Kirigakure. Unfortunately, a poor choice of words and actions resulted in hostility between the two groups. While Asda disagreed with the initial approach, he remained loyal to his friend, believing it was wrong to judge someone based on a single misunderstanding.

Conflict and Struggles: Over the next year, the Bullies faced a series of clashes with the inhabitants of Mist, experiencing both victories and defeats. They weakened the forces of Orb Hozuki but also suffered significant losses at their hands. Ultimately, the Bullies were ambushed, leading to substantial casualties and despair within their ranks.

Chaos's Disappearance: After the disastrous skirmish, Chaos became disheartened and vanished, rumored to be seeking greater power. Lost without his friend, Asda remained determined to keep their shared dream alive and set out to fulfill it.

New Leadership and Challenges: In Chaos's absence, a new leader emerged, persuading Orb to allow Kirigakure to open up to the outside world. Asda, utilizing his exceptional stealth, managed to blend into the crowd and gain entry into Kirigakure.

Rise to the Kage Office

Growth: Although Asda never intended to lead a village; the responsibility was thrust upon him by those who sought his guidance. Recognizing the importance of helping those in need, he accepted the role.

The 4th Mizukage: Asda was named the 4th Mizukage and has since dedicated himself to protecting and serving his people. Despite the demands of leadership, he remains committed to pursuing his personal goals while striving to guide Kirigakure toward a brighter future.

Asda showing his Blood Mist Duality

Revision #8
Created 2026-02-19 20:24:49 UTC by Admin
Updated 2026-04-13 12:25:04 UTC by Ser3rm